Closing date for enrollment: 24 September 2014

The Peacebuilding Practitioners Advanced Training Course in Florence, Italy has been created to provide those interested in gaining key expertise and practical understanding of peacebuilding with a comprehensive 1 month programme. This will be useful both for academics and graduate students and developing practitioners or experts looking for comprehensive 'refresher' course and examining key frontiers and issues in the field. This will include conceptual briefs, interactive case studies, expert discussions and working groups, and review of key findings and lessons from the fields of policy and practice. The programme is intended to assist participants in gaining key understandings and professional orientation in peacebuilding, prevention and post-war peace consolidation.
